

DOGUET'S DIAMOND D RANCH ANNUAL PRODUCTION SALE

OCT. 21 - POTEET, TEXAS

submitted by Mark Cowan, American Marketing Services

Doguet Diamond D Sale Attracts Standing Room Only Crowd

5 Brangus and Ultrablack show heifer prospects grossed $$80,000 to average $16,000

2 Brangus donors grossed $45,000 to average $22,500

5 Brangus 3N1's grossed $61,500 to average $12,300

25 Brangus fall-bred heifers/pairs grossed $124,100 to average $4,964

16 Brangus spring-bred heifers grossed $67,250 to average $4,203

1 Brangus embryo lot grossed $13,800 to average $13,800

64 Brangus female lots grossed $439,400 to average $6,866

1 Brangus semen lot grossed $13,300 to average $13,300

39 coming-two-year-old Brangus bulls grossed $281,100 to average $7,208

33 yearling Brangus and Ultrablack bulls grossed $137,300 to average $4,161

73 Brangus bull lots grossed $432,200 to average $5,921

Standing room only greeted the crowd of Brangus enthusiasts at the recent Doguet Diamond D Ranch Brangus sale. The offering was met with ready acceptance and torrid bidding.

GKB Cattle, Waxahachie, Texas, paid $45,000 to own the day's high-selling female, Lot 1B, DDD SILVER SKIES 804E33. This embryo-transfer (ET) daughter of DDD DYNAMITE 804A2 is a paternal sister to both the Grand Champion bull and female at the 2017 National Junior Brangus Show.

GKB Cattle, also, paid $35,000 for the second high-selling female offered when they purchased the dam and full sib to Silver Skies, Lot 1 DDD SILVER LINING 804A63 and Lot 1A DDD SILVER SUCCESS 804E47 for $35,000.

Robert and Brent Cromwell, Giddings, Texas, paid $18,000 to own Lot 68, DDD MS TNT 1019C7. This spring-bred heifer is a maternal sister to Masterplan.

$15,000 each was the price bid for Lot 2, DDD SWEET SOURCE 38D22, the reigning 2017 Futurity Reserve Champion female, and Lot 10, DDD SERENDIPITY 804B33, a fall-bred cow and a maternal sister to Silver Lining. MP Brangus, Waco, Texas, was the fortunate buyer.

The feature lot, DDD DOZER 804D8, the reigning Western National Grand Champion Brangus and Reserve Supreme Champion, was the high-selling bull as GKB Cattle paid $45,000 to own this son of Ranger and the two-time Show Heifer of the Year, Barbara.

Priest Cattle Co., Lorena, Texas, paid $42,000 to own Lot 103, DDD MASTERPLAN 74D19. This wide-bodied, big-boned son of Masterplan drew rave reviews and active bidding.

The day's third high-selling bull was Lot 102, DDD STOCK OPTION 150D4. He sold to Morrison Livestock, Midland, Texas, for $18,500. His dam is a full sister to Ambrosia.