NATIONAL RECOGNITION FOR BRANGUS® SEEDSTOCK PRODUCERS

San Antonio – Four International Brangus® Breeders Association (IBBA) members are recognized by BEEF Magazine on the 2018 BEEF Seedstock 100 list.

In the official release, BEEF offers the following explanation: “BEEF assembles the annual S100 list for several reasons, which include monitoring the level of seedstock concentration and the relative market engagement of seedstock suppliers. It’s based on the number of bulls marketed last year, as reported by seedstock operations to BEEF.”

IBBA members included on the list were GENETRUST, Yon Family Farms, Salacoa Valley Farms, and Blackwater Cattle Company.

The International Brangus Breeders Association (IBBA), headquartered in San Antonio, Texas, strives to provide the commercial cattle industry, domestically and internationally, with the best genetics possible. Founded in 1949 as the American Brangus Breeders, the organization has since evolved into the IBBA. The IBBA’s purpose is to enable its members to produce quality beef for the commercial cattle industry and its consumers. For more information about IBBA, visit gobrangus.com.
